The Committee, upon whom the duty of preparing this Catalogue has devolved, deem it due to themselves to state, that they have been compelled to compile it under many disadvantages. They have not aimed to make it a model catalogue, but such a one as would be practically useful to the readers of the Library. Most of the works have been entered under the names of the Authors, as well as under their titles, and it is hoped that no difficulty will be experienced in finding any book in the collection. The difficulty of arranging the books of voyages and travels under the various countries, as many of them embraced several different ones, induced the Committee to throw them into an Appendix, by which means a general view of the whole can readily be obtained. Each book of Travels, &c., is therefore entered in the body of the Catalogue only under the name of the Author, and in the Appendix as far as possible under the country.

THE ALEXANDRIA LIBRARY

Was founded in 1794. On the 24th of July of that year a meeting of some of the prominent citizens of Alexandria was held "at the house of John Wise," who formed themselves into a voluntary association, and adopted certain "Constitutional Outlines of a permanent Institution for establishing a Circulating Library, to be called the Library Company of Alexandria."

On the 31st of the same month the following Officers were chosen, viz :

President, REV. JAMES MUIR.*

Directors.

ELISHA C. DICK,	ROBERT MEASE,	CHARLES SIMMS,
JOHN GILL,	WILLIAM HARTSHORNE,	JOHN D. ORR,
CHARLES LEE, and JOHN FITZGERALD.

Treasurer, SAMUEL CRAIG.

Librarian, EDWARD STABLER.

The Association continued voluntary till 1798, when an Act of Incorporation was obtained from the Legislature of Virginia. This act, however, proved defective, and a new one was passed the following year, which has remained unaltered to the present time.

Under this Charter the Company advanced with varied success. From 1830 to 1840 it was in a languishing condition, and on the establishment of the Lyceum an effort was made to revive it by forming a union between the two companies. At this time the books were removed to the room they now occupy, in the Lyceum Building.

This connection lasted till 1844, when it was dissolved by mutual consent, and from that time the Library Company remained in a state of suspended animation till 1852. In that year it was re-organized, and a considerable number of new stockholders was added. The number of books then in the Library was rather less than 4,000; more than 500 have since been added.

At the present time the number of Stockholders is about 100; the Library contains 4,481 volumes; the annual addition is between 125 and 150, and the number taken out yearly is nearly 3,000.

*Mr. Muir continued to hold the office of President until 1813.

THE ACT OF INCORPORATION.

---

AN ACT to incorporate a LIBRARY COMPANY in the town of Alexandria, in Virginia.

(Passed in the General Assembly, 9th January, 1799.)

WHEREAS it is represented to the present General Assembly, that sundry inhabitants of the town of Alexandria, and the vicinity thereof, have associated, and procured a considerable library for their improvement, and that it would greatly tend to promote the good purposes of the institution to make them a body corporate :

AND WHEREAS the General Assembly are desirous of promoting so laudable an institution :—

Be it therefore enacted, That the said LIBRARY COMPANY be, and they are hereby, made a body politic and corporate, by the name of the Alexandria Library Company; and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and a common seal, with a capacity to purchase, receive, and possess goods and chattels, lands and tenements, in fee or otherwise; and the same to grant, sell, let, or assign : Provided, however, That they shall not purchase, receive or possess, more lands and tenements, goods and chattels, as aforesaid, than shall be sufficient for carrying into effect the beneficial purposes of this institution; and by the names aforesaid they may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in all causes in law or equity.

And be it further enacted, That the said Library Company shall meet annually on the third Monday in February in every year, of which meeting two weeks' previous notice shall be given in one of the Alexandria newspapers; and the said Company, or such of them as shall convene, shall elect by ballot, out of the Company, a President and eleven Directors, whose authority shall continue for one year, and until another President and other Directors are appointed in their stead.

The said President and Directors, or a majority of them, shall have power to fill any vacancies which may occur in their own body; to appoint out of the Company a Librarian, Treasurer, and other necessary officers; and to fix the salaries of those officers.

And be it further enacted, That the said President and Directors, or a majority of them, shall have power to make such by-laws, rules, and regulations (not contrary to the constitution and laws of this State, or of the United States) as they may think necessary and proper for the conduct and government of the said Company—subject, however, to the revision and amendment of a majority thereof, who shall be convened for that purpose at the request of any six members of the Company.

And be it further enacted, That an act passed at the last session of the Assembly, entitled “An act to incorporate a Library Company in the town of Alexandria,” shall be, and the same is hereby, repealed. This act shall commence and be in force from and after the passing thereof.
